Last Meeting	17/09/18	No 2435
Present	17 Rotarians 2 Guests – Ava Koentzen, Doug Rogers.
Chairperson	J Scott

- Pres Josie would like to organise an evening to include past members e.g Duncan McKendrick, Dean Earle, at the Rotary Centre.
- A joint meeting with Lions and other service clubs to be held next year in April. Josie has a speaker lined up.
- Graham Richards has resigned, but will still continue as a Friend of Rotary.
- Members are asked to consider attending the Rotary Conference at Hahndorf in March 2019, and the one in Broken Hill in April 2019.
- No further information has yet come about the Vocational Training Team for 2019.
- Promoting Rotary- David Dunstan has contacted the Plains Producer, who have offered a free Rotary Spot every two months. This will further let the community know what we do.
- Clare High School is interested in starting an Interact Club.
- RES Ava talked about her visit to the Adelaide Show with other students from CHS Ag Studies classes. They left Clare at 5am, taking a number of wethers. There were 70 schools in the competition, with an average of three wethers each. The sheep were shorn and the fleece judged. CHS won 4 firsts – but the sheep ate the ribbons! Ava is doing well and enjoying her schooling.
- Ian advised of a letter from Kevin Meisner asking us to cook a bbq for Carols in the Valley at Lakeside on 1st December – sausages and bread for around 300 people.
- Lions Club nomination of Mark Hill for Policeman of the Year was not successful this time. There were 39 applicants, and Mark was one of the final three.
- The Riesling Trail newsletter has requested a digital copy of the minutes of committee meetings.
- Glen Waldhuter has obtained enough funding for all 5 NYSF students.
- David Dunstan (Community) has plans for 2019 – perhaps revisit some past projects. He needs someone to collect newspapers from Wild Saffron on a regular basis. The newsagency is currently OK, but may need someone to help in the future.
- Hermann urged everyone to buy some wine. O'Leary Walker has had some very good reviews recently, and our price cannot be beaten.
- Patricia Jacka stressed the need for members to update their Child Protection checks, then photocopy for her files.
- Doug Rogers was inducted as our newest member. Congratulations and welcome, Doug.
- Hermann also brought our attention to a table of photos of past Rotarians and Rotary event. They came from the late Gunther Bayha, and Margaret Zweck, and go back to 1971.
