Guest Speaker: John Willson spoke about the book he has written about the Riesling Railway, celebrating the Centenary of the Clare Railway. The book will be launched by Monica McInerney on the 7th July at the Railway Museum, Port Adelaide. She will drive a steam trail engine a short way.

The Dunstan government looked into the operation of the South Australian railway system and closed the line after the results came in. Prior performance could have closed it earlier

The Clare line was built on the cheap, and opened in July 1918.

In 1978 for the Clare Easter Festival. Local Alistair Long ran some tourist trains to Clare. ANR took over in 1982.

The Riesling Trail was initiated in 1994.

John gave an excellent power point presentation and passed around proof copies of the book, which is packed to the hilt with photos and information. Pre-sale orders are now being accepted.

At the last Town Hall Committee meeting, Rotary rep Julianne asked when WiFi would be available to the Town Hall. It seems the ball has been dropped in regard to this, but it will be looked into afresh. Also if lighting could be upgraded in both the Stan Scott room, and the pop-up gallery. The latter will be done very soon with existing funds, in the form of suspended flouro fittings. The old velvet curtains in the main hall have been replaced with motorised blinds in a beige colour. They look great.
